

Economic and social change
Reformation

Religious Tension

Economic Hardship

Race, Class, Gender

Scepticism

State intervention

Rationalism

Scientific revolution

Context of the Early Modern period

Depth Studies – North Berwick, Pendle, Bamberg, East Anglia and Salem

Breadth Study – Why does belief in witch hunting decline in Britain?

Breadth Study – the coming of the age of science and reason

Paper 2 Revision

Developing and writing the coursework (abolition of the slave trade) – 1:1 support and feedback to facilitate development of work

Paper 1 – Thatcher 1979-97: historical interpretation

Paper 1 Revision

Further Study

YEAR

13

Economic change

Political pressure

Resistance

Interpretation

Significance

State intervention

Industrial relations

Privatisation

Slavery
Historiography

Quality of life & popular culture

Permissive society

Class and Gender

Race Relations

Comprehensivisation

State intervention

Industrial Relations

Abolition of the Slave trade - content

Post-war sport, leisure and transport.

Extent of social revolution in Britain

Impact of immigration on Britain

Impact of education reform

Collapse of post-war consensus

Civil Rights and Cultural change 80-92

Reaganomics and Bush's U-Turn

The impact of the Moral Majority 80-92

Development of personal freedoms 72-80

Fragmentation of popular culture

Political and economic crisis 1972-80

Popular culture

Protest and personal freedom

Economy

Mass Democracy

Religious Right

Quality of Life

Welfare

Protest and personal freedom

Popular Culture

Post war consensus

Popular culture

Welfare State

Political Disillusionment

National Health Service

Britain Transformed: Change and continuity and Significance

Political change in the inter-war period

State intervention in economic well-being

Inter-war leisure and culture

Post-WW2 consensus

Post-war quality of life

Improving the health of the nation post-WW2

USA Challenge and Conformity: Use of historical source material

Eisenhower and Affluence and Kennedy's New Frontier

Black Civil Rights 1955-63

Cultural challenge and conformity 55-63

Johnson's Great Society

Protest and resistance 1963-72

Nixon and reaction to cultural change

Affluence

Welfare

Civil Rights

Popular culture

Federal Intervention

Protest and personal freedom

Silent majority

YEAR

12